

Keuka Spring Vineyards

2015 Lemberger

Vineyard & Winemaking Notes

An Austrian vinifera varietal grown selectively in the Finger Lakes, Lemberger is also called Blaufränkisch. After admiring the fruit grown at Anthony Road's vineyard and the wines produced from it, we were excited when the opportunity to purchase Lemberger from this excellent site came up. In order to showcase Lemberger's unique varietal character, this wine was unoaked.
